Cleansing The Brain

How do I become consciously aware of my Divine Isness and blend and merge with it?
We did it with the new rainbow colors?

"Indeed and we will sanctify that by saying to you. Here we called on the soft yellow of shimmering Light, did we not? Allow yourself to feel that move into your brain, into your brain and as you do feel the shimmering vibration come through the veins in the brain. Come to the left hemisphere, the right hemisphere. Come to all of its tucks and turfs. Then allow yourself to continue to visualize and feel the beautiful new soft ray of yellow to move into the central nervous center. As it does let it flow and weave right on through the entire body. For it is here you will cleanse the brain again and again. It is totally receptive to the inspirations of the Divine and inspirations of the Divine Expression."

Thank you Malachi

Opening The Crown Chakra

How many petals are open in my crown chakra now?

"Well Beautiful One, let us have you let your consciousness reach into your crown chakra for you are looking for the thousand petal lotus, are you not?"

Yes I am.

"When we look Beautiful One we would say this, the lotus pedals are all open and the core of that lotus that you would call the stamen are vibrating."

Oh that is really good!

"So acknowledge that within yourself. Do not worry! Then you let this energy to continue to vibrate as you receive more and more. Then your human mind can take form and expand in knowledge."

Thank you Malachi

Connecting To The Spirit of Source

Malachi can you assist me in expanding the columns of Light that connect to my I AM Presence so they are as wide as the crown of my head?

“Indeed so again, we’re taken you through the new soft yellow. Remind yourself again and again to bring the Ultra-Violet through as well. For this will always place you in the Spirit of Source. It will always harmonize; it harmonizes this beautiful brain. It will harmonize your personal brain, your mind, spirit mind and your Source mind.”

Oh how wonderful! Thank you, Malachi.
