

13. Process To Know Your New Galactic Mission

Beloved Malachi, Katherine Bell, Ph.D.,D.,D.

How do I know what my New Galactic Mission is?

“Alright Beautiful One, here, let us again have you Breathe Deeply in Yourself, Feel the Holiness of your Inner Temple then make this acknowledgement . . . ‘I am on a Mission, It is a Mission of Light.’ ”

A Fun Mission! It is being the Christed Light that I am and Nothing matters!

“It is indeed, as we will say again, It is you Accepting You as that Light!

“Then Beautiful One Your Mission is Your everyday Living that Light and when you are, you are in Service, in the Service of Light, Beautiful One. You are Radiating not only the Peace, Love and Harmony but you are Radiating the Vibration called Intention. Your Intention to Be the Light, to Live the Light, to Express the Light. In Service then to your Brothers and Sisters of Humanity will Feel the very same Intentions. Then they can Merge into that Awareness and Be the Light, Live the Light and Express the Light.”

So I Shine the Light and No matter what happens it is Perfect!

“Indeed. No Expectations.”

OK. Thank you Malachi.
