

27. The Noospheres

Beloved Malachi, Katherine Bell, Ph.D.,D.,D.

And Barbara “Marrianna” Zimmermann

What can you tell me about Noospheres? How do I awaken or merge with them?

“Beautiful One, once again, it is a state of your consciousness unfamiliar to the Human Frame until now.”

Well I have a desire to merge with it and I don’t even know what it is.

“Well we will always have a good giggle with humanity. You have always been merged with it. Now you are becoming aware of it. You may call it the God Sphere or the All Knowing Sphere of Consciousness. More and more human beings are merging with what you can term an awareness.”

“Therefore, in the awareness Beautiful One. Each one of you can grasp a bit more knowledge into the forefront of your brain, meaning your cognitive place. When you are doing that then you are speaking it more clearly, you are radiating more frequently, you are Being it.”

Is this the same thing as when I go through my Soul’s Heart into the Universal Consciousness? Note: your soul resides on a throne in your 2nd chakra.

“Indeed, indeed.”

Is that the way to keep doing it?

“Indeed!”

Thank you Malachi.
