

13. Communications from Archangel Raphael

The following Paragraphs are Excerpts from Three Meditations in which Archangel Raphael Provides Wisdom and Guidance to Help Me Personally on My Pathway of Light. They are Provided as Examples of the Love from on High that All Can Receive. May They bring You the same Wisdom, Comfort and Clarification as They Brought to Me.

Pearls of Wisdom

Raphael urges to go Slowly when Learning of Spiritual Matters, to Savor Each New Thought and Concept as a Precious Pearl.

What am I to Know and Learn Tonight, this moment, dear Raphael?

Go Slowly in Your Desire to Know and See and Understand. Rome Wasn't Built in a Day, You know. There is Much to See, Hear, Know and Become Acquainted with. Let Each Bit of Knowledge be One of those Little Steps Malachi talked about. Enjoy and Savor Each One for they are like Precious Pearls on a String. One at Each Step, Each Day, Each Visit, Each Time we Come Together. Haste Makes Waste and also it Prevents One from Fully Grasping, and Enjoying Each as it Comes.

You Remember how Exciting it was to See your First Grey Vireo? You Savored It and Enjoyed It and Exulted Over It. But, when You saw so Many, Many New Birds in One Day and Day after Day, it Didn't Mean Very Much and You soon Lost Track and They All became Rolled into One and there was Little of the Thrill, the Excitement, the Joy of Discovery that There Was when only One New Bird Appeared.

So it is with the Pearls of Knowledge that are Coming to You Daily. Take them like a Dose of Manna, of Heavenly Elixir, of Sweet Medicine that Restores Health and Vitality and Love and Peace and Understanding.

Thank You Dear Raphael.
