

4. Wisdom from on High

Lord Jesus, Master Sananda through Zim

My Son, the Wisdom from on High Flows Gently and Smoothly and Sweetly into the Hearts and Minds of Those who Are Open and Willing to Hear and to Receive and to Accept. This Wisdom which No Man Has Except Through Spirit is Never Forced Upon Anyone. It is Always Offered in Sincerity, in Love and with Complete Openness. No One is Forced, Coerced, Pressured or Tricked Into Accepting It or Believing It. It is Presented Openly and Without Condition or Reservation.

Many See It Not As Wisdom but as Foolishness and Gobble-de-Gook. They Cannot Explain It with Their Mental Powers, with Logic or Philosophical Rules or Theories. They Cannot See It or Hear It with Their Eyes and Ears. The Wisdom from on High Comes Into the Heart and Speaks to Spirit Within Man. If That Spirit is Blocked or Shut or Closed Down for Whatever Reason, the Wisdom Offered To Man From On High Will Be Kept Out and Denied and Rejected.

One of the Major Reasons for Such Rejection is Man's Puffed-up Opinion of Himself. Many See Themselves As Special, As Important, As Above All Others. Many Feature Themselves as Very Wise and Very Knowledgeable in Things of Spirit and of Higher Realms. With Such an Attitude and Such an Outlook Upon Themselves and Their Lives, it is No Wonder that They Find It Difficult and Often Impossible to Accept What is Offered By Spirit.

There are, On the Other Hand, Many who Will and Do Receive and Accept the Wisdom from on High. These are the People who Are Open to Whatever Comes to Them, Be It Logical, Sensible or Seemingly Nonsensical. They Receive It, Hold It Up to the Light, Not Only the Light of Their Minds but also the Light of Their Hearts and Souls and Spirits.

They May Not Be Able to Explain it All or even to Fully Understand It All but they Know Inside and Sense that the Wisdom from on High Speaks to Something Within and Stirs a Long Dormant Memory and Awakens the Knowledge Deep Within the Cells of Their Bodies. As long as They Are Open to It and Are Willing to Look At It in Fairness and Objectivity, They will Eventually Accept It Fully and Unconditionally. The Power that Abides in the Wisdom of All Above, Invades and Pervades Their Inner Most Beings and Does the Convincing and Brings the Individual to Certainty and Inner Knowing Concerning the Wisdom of God.

Most often this Wisdom Comes So Gently and So Slowly and Softly that the Individual is Not Even Aware that it Has Come Until One Day He or She Suddenly Realizes it is Already There and Has Been Accepted and is Truth. Like the Fog of Your Earth Plane, it Comes so Imperceptibly at times and with Such Silence and Unobtrusiveness that Humans are Often Unaware that It Is Coming Until Suddenly, it seems, It Is There and Surrounding and Permeating Everything.

When the Wisdom from God Comes to Man, and it Makes No Difference How it Comes, whether through Spoken Word, Dreams, Books, Writings, Meditations, or in Any Other Way, Man Has the Choice to Open To It and Accept It or to Close Himself To It and Reject It. Although some Humans Fret and Stew over whether they Will Recognize It and Accept It when it Comes, There is No Need for Such Negative Feelings and Activities. When Man Intends to Look Into It and to See What it Is All About and Is Willing to Approach It with an Open Heart and Mind, the Die is Already Cast. He will Indeed, Receive and Accept It and It Will, Indeed, Become His Own and Be a Part of His Being from that Moment On.

That is Not to say that Each Person Will Immediately and Totally Accept Everything He Receives from Spirit. Man is Not That Willing to Set Aside His Ego and Intellect. There will Always Be Some Areas, some Truths that an Individual will Find Hard to Believe, to Accept. For some it will be One Thing and for Another Something entirely Different. The Reason for This is Simply that Each Person Carries Within Himself Experiences and Knowledge and Wisdom of Many, Many Lifetimes and indeed from Eternity Before His First Incarnation. The Experiences and Wisdom of Man from His Lifetimes are Always Different for Each Person. Thus for One a Teaching of Truth may seem Very Sensible and Acceptable while for Another the same Teaching will seem Impossible and Unacceptable.

In the End, if They will Continue with Open Minds and are Willing to See and to Receive the Explanations and Teachings of Spirit, They will Eventually come to Realize the Truth of All that Comes From Spirit. They will Set Aside Their Biased Knowledge and Understanding of Past Lives and Realize the Truth of what Spirit Gives to Them.

Now there are Ways to Make It Easier for Spirit to Come to Man and to Teach and Imbue Him with Higher Wisdom. Man Does Not Have to Be a Mere Empty Jug Waiting for Spirit to Pour Wisdom into Himself. No indeed, Man can Consciously Open His Mind to Whatever Comes, even, and Especially, when It Seems to Human Intelligence to Be Foolishness. Maintaining an Open Mind is an Activity of Will. Each Man has Such Will and Can Exercise It to His Benefit or His Discomfort.

Many can also Turn to those Teachers on the Earth Plane that have been Shown to be of the Truth. Speaking to Others Who are More Knowledgeable and Advanced, Will Assist Man to Find such Teachers. Reading of those Books and Writings which have been Screened and Found of the Truth by those with Great Discernment and Knowing Will Be a Source and Way of Receiving Truth. Associating with People of the Light in Meetings, Gatherings, Studies and the Like Will be an Assistance to Opening to Spirit and to Remaining Open to Spirit.

Finally, Turning to the Beings of Light in Meditation and Prayer Will Bring to Each Person Vast Amounts of Learning and Understanding of the Truth. Daily Contact with Guides, Teachers and Higher Beings Will Hasten the Coming of Spirit and Increase the Volume of Knowledge and Learning and Understanding that Man Receives.

Looking Within is the Best Way of Sorting Out Truth from Falsehood and Spirit from Ego. Within Each Person there is Spirit, Learning to Find and Listen to that Spirit Will Enable Each Person to have His Own Well of Truth and Knowledge and Pure Perception. Allowing Inner Knowing and Discernment to Consider and Review all the Knowledge of Spirit that Comes to a Person in All the Different Ways, will Provide a Certainty to Each Person Of What Is Truth and What Is Not Truth.

So then, My Son, Wisdom from on High Comes Not Just By Accident. The I AM of All Arranges Ways and Means to Give that Wisdom to Each and Every Soul Upon the Earth Plane. What they Do With It is Their Choice. Those that Reject It Will Be Given Opportunity After Opportunity in Lifetime After Lifetime To See It and Accept It. Those Who Do Accept It and Receive It Will Find It to be the Joy and Delight of Their Hearts and Lives, for It Is the Wisdom that Directs and Steers and Assists Man Along the Pathway of Light to His Waiting Home in Eternity.

I am Jesus Sananda.0

Thank you for Your Message.

Previous Next