

44. Through Death to Eternal Bliss

Every Pathway of Life starts some Place and Ends Some Place. It Wanders Through this Earth Plane and We Follow It as Long as We Are Here. There are Ups and Downs, Turns and Curves, Narrow Places and Broad Places, Pleasures and Sorrows but Finally It Does End. For Many People the End of the Pathway of Life comes when Death Separates Their Real Being of Spirit from Their Mortal Bodies. For many Others it Will Come when They Ascend Directly to the Higher Dimensions.

Sir Raphael speaks of Death in this next Selection. He Explains what it Is and Why it Is Not Something to Fear.

Death is Not a Very Well Liked Subject on the Earth Plane because Most People Think of Death in Negative Terms. They See It as the End of Life. The End of Pleasure. The End of Everything They have Worked and Toiled For Throughout Life on Earth. Earth People are, Therefore, Terrified of Death for It Seems Like the End of So Many Things They Have Grown to Know and Love and Enjoy.

Death is an Unknown to Them. Only a Few have Crossed the Threshold from Life on Earth Through Death to Life Beyond Death and Returned Into the Same Body On Earth Again. Though All Have Been Rebirthed Again and Again, it Has Been In Different Bodies, Minds and Situations and Status Upon the Earth. Memory of Past Living On Earth is Dim At Best and for Many There Is No Memory of Past Living Here At All.

I would Assure and Reassure You and All Others that Death Is Not Something To Fear, To Dread, To Shrink From. It is Nothing But the Crossing of a Threshold Into a Different Life. It is Just as Easy and Painless and Harmless As Stepping Across the Threshold of Your Own Home Entrance. Just as You Step Across the Threshold Into Your Home and You Feel a Sense of Welcome, of Safety, of Relief From the Storms and Stresses of the World Outside, So It Is With Death. One Steps Across the Threshold Called Death Into His or Her Real Life, Real Home, Real Living.

You Call The Earth Your Home. You Call the House You Live in Your Home. Your Real Home, However, Is On Other Planets and Dimensions and Realms Where There Is No Misery, No Pain, No Suffering But Only Eternal Joy and Bliss and Happiness in Alignment With the I AM THAT I AM.

Death is Also Like Laying Aside the Shell and Husk of Life on Earth and Going On Without the Hindrance and Burdensomeness of The Human Body. The Body on Earth is a Poor Habitation. It is Subject to a Great Deal of Weakness, Illness, Sickness, Pain and Discomfort. At Death This Body With All Its Shortcomings Is Laid Aside And The Etheric Body Of Spirit and Soul Goes On To Upper Realms.

Death is the Putting Behind of All the Cares and Woes and Problems and Negatives of Earthly Existence and Going Forward to Perfect Alignment with Spirit. It is the Stepping Stone to Perfect Happiness, Perfect Bliss, Perfect Harmony with All the Beings of Light.

Fear Not Death Then for It Marks the Beginning Of Real Life, Real Happiness, Real Peace and Bliss for Each Light Person.

Thank You Dear Friend Raphael.

Here is Our Beloved Jesus Sananda Providing Assurance that Death is Not what it Seems to Human Senses. Rather it is Like a Doorway, a Doorway which Opens to our Real Home of Bliss for Eternity.

I Would this Evening Speak a little more on What You Humans on the Earth Plane Call Death. Most Human Beings are Frightened of Death. To Them Death is Frightening for a Number of Reasons. They are Frightened Because They Don't Know What It Really Is. They are Frightened because they See It As The End of Life and Existence. They are Frightened because to them it Could Lead to a Worse Life or Worse Existence, Than They Have on Earth. They are Frightened Because Like Every Thing Else on the Third Dimension, Death is Fearsome.

Living on the Earth Plane is Fearsome to Most People because They See Only the Limits, the Finiteness, the Boundaries of Things of Earth. For Example they See Their Own Bodies as Being Very Limited in Respect to Age. All Around They See those who are Getting Older, More Feeble, More Dependent Upon Others. They See that Human Bodies Don't Last Very Long when All is Considered. So They are Afraid Each Time Something Goes a Little Wrong With Their Bodies. They Stream to the Medical People and Organizations and Buildings. They Beg and Plead for Something that Will Help or Cure or Bring Strength and Vigor Back to Their Bodies.

Another Example of How Fear Grips the People of the Earth Plane is Found in the Matter of Food, Clothing and Shelter, the So Called Necessities of Life. Oh, how Many Cling to the Idea There is Not Enough Food, Not Enough Clothing, Not Enough or Good Enough Shelter. How Many Work and Struggle and Scrape to Get More and More of These Things. They See Them as Being In Short Supply and Therefore They Become Afraid For Themselves and for Their Loved Ones that There Won't Be Enough For Them. Their Whole Lives Are Devoted to Gathering More and More So They Won't Run Out, So They Won't Have To Face Scarcity or Lack of Any Kind.

A Third Example is the Matter of Money. It has Become the Idol, the Symbol of Achievement in the World. It is the Same Fear of Lack or Not Enough That Motivates People to Try to Collect and Keep As Much Money As Possible.

In All These Examples, and there Could Be Many More Given, the Motivating Concept Is That There Isn't Enough. They Believe There Is a Scarcity, a Lack of Health, Time, Food, Clothing, Money and Many, Many More Such Things. It is the Same Underlying Motivation for the Fear of Death. Most See Death as the End of Life and To Them The End of Life Is, in Their Sight, the Ultimate Lack, the Ultimate Scarcity. What Could be More Finite, More Limited than a Life that Comes to an End!

How Sad that Most People Have This Skewed Concept of Life and Death. Let Me Assure and Reassure You and Anyone Else Who Would Listen That Death Is Not The End. Life Does Not End. Life Is Continuous. It Doesn't Ever Stop. What Stops is the Human Body. When Life Leaves the Human Body, the Body Stops, It Ends and Returns to the Earthly Elements It Was Made Of. In Other Words, Life Goes On But The Outward Form, The Shell, The House, If You Will, Comes To An End.

What then Happens to a Person Who Dies? He or She Simply Leaves the Body and Ascends to the 5th Dimension or to Some Other Realm. This Ascension of Life, of the Soul or Spirit, as Some Would Conceive of It, is Painless, it is Automatic, Nothing and No One Can Interfere With It. Only the Individual, the Person Himself or Herself Can Delay It and Then Only For a Short Time. The Individual Can Delay To Remain In The Vicinity of His Earth Home and Family and Loved Ones, to Reassure Them Death is Not the End But that They Still Live. This Delay is Only Temporary, However. Eventually Every Being, Spirit, Living Entity Ascends Away From The Earth to The Higher Dimensions.

What Happens Then Depends on the Lessons That Person Learned or Didn't Learn. It Depends on Whether or Not He or She Has Seen the Light Within, the I AM PRESENCE of Themselves and have Accepted It. If They Have, They Have the Choice to Remain in Higher Realms Forever or They Can Choose To Reincarnate and Come Back To Earth or to Some Other Planet to Assist and Help the Inhabitants to See Their Light and Become People of the Light.

If they Choose to Remain in the Higher Realms They Still Have Many Options and Choices, Most of Them Are In the Form of Service to Some Person or Group, Some Place in All the Universes of the Creation. Thus it is that Those Ascended Ones, which are Often called Beings of Light, Serve Those on Earth by Communicating with Them, in Dreams, Meditations, Visions, Knowings and a Host of Other Ways of which the Human Condition is Not Able to Understand Nor Even to Be Aware Of. They are the Messengers of the Most High Source of All There IS. They Rejoice in the Love and Light That is Their Total Daily Existence.

Those, However, Who Have Died and Left Their Earthly Shell Behind But Have Not Seen and Accepted Their Own Light Within, Will Stay in the Higher Realms Only Temporarily. They Will Rest, As It Were, For a Time and Then Return to the Earth Plane in Other Bodies and As Other Beings, So They Can Learn More of The Lessons of Limitation and Lack and, Hopefully, Come To See Their Light and Receive It. They May Go Through This Circle Any Number of Times, As Long As It Takes, As Often As Necessary Until They Have Learned The Things of Earth are Finite, Limited and Come To an End, but Themselves, Their Life, Their Light Which is Their Very Essence Does Not End, It Is Eternal. It Is The Real Them. When that Happens, They Ascend and No Longer Have To Return Unless They Choose To for the Benefit of Others.

So You See that Death is Not an End. It is Not the Epitome of Limitation. It is Nothing to Be Feared, for All it Really is, is a Change From One Mode of Life to Another. It is Nothing but a Stepping Across the Threshold of Existence on Earth to Existence in Higher Realms.

When this is Understood and Accepted, Death Loses Its Fearsomeness. Death then Becomes Tame and Mild and At Most Exciting But Never Fearsome. It Marks the Moving on of Soul, Life, Spirit to Better Things and Conditions.

Fear Not Death For It Is The Beginning Of The Rest of Your Eternal Life.
